About me

Hi! My name is Bohdan (Bogdan), and I'm a professional JavaScript developer. My main focus is backend development, but I'm also open to frontend positions and eager to grow in that area. In addition, I'm well-versed in DevOps practices and proficient in Golang. I value communication and teamwork, and I'm an open and sociable person. In my work, I strive to find the best solutions for the client, balancing both quality and deadlines.
